

Insects Anatomy: Match up sentences

Cut out the sentences. Match correctly.

Insects have hard

bodies to protect themselves.

Insects smell

with their antennas.

Insects bodies don't have bones.

Some beetles have

shiny bodies.

Grasshoppers have five

eyes.

Moths are usually

dull in colour.

Scorpions

use poison to kill their prey.

Some caterpillars

are hairy.

Crickets can blend

and camouflage in
the grass.