Find the text in the maze. Answer the questions.

Vanuatu is a nation of small islands in the South Pacific. It is one of the smallest countries in the world. However, for those interested in extreme sports, there is a lot to do. Popular sports include: land diving, volcano surfing, swimming, snorkeling, sea kayaking and bungee jumping. Volcano surfing is popular, but also dangerous. A surfer's goal is to escape the erupting volcano, without being hit by flying rocks.

1. Where is Vanuatu? _____

2. Which extreme sports are popular? _____
